Sufficiency of Instructional Materials for the 2024-2025 School Year

September 17, 2024

Williams Settlement Certification

- Per Ed Code 60119, districts must certify the “sufficiency” of textbooks within the first eight weeks of school.
- “Sufficiency” is measured by determining that “each and every pupil, including English learners, has a standards-aligned textbook or instructional materials, or both, in the four core subjects to use in class and take home, regardless of whether or not homework is assigned, but it does not mean two copies of materials.”
  - English/Language Arts
  - Math
  - History/Social Science
  - Science

Certification, continued

- Expanded to include Health and World Language (for students enrolled) & availability of high school laboratory science equipment, where applicable in Grades 9-12.

Instructional Materials

- Textbooks
- Chromebooks
- Access to online curricula
- Novels
- Science lab equipment
- Workbooks

Williams Act Monitoring

This year, both Granada High School and Livermore High School were selected for Williams Act Monitoring.

The Alameda County Office of Education conducted a monitoring audit early this school year.

GHS Visit – Aug. 27– Zero insufficiencies found

LHS Visit – Aug. 28 – Zero insufficiencies found

Certification for the District

- The audits are “spot checks”
- This board resolution involves certifying that the instructional materials throughout the district are sufficient
- Curriculum works with principals and library media specialists throughout district to ensure sufficiency

Next Steps

- Hold a public hearing during a meeting of the Board of Education
