

GRADUATE PROFILE

Each student will graduate with the skills needed to contribute and thrive in a changing world.

SELF-AWARENESS

- Perseverance and having a growth mindset
- Demonstrating honesty and integrity
- Experiencing selfefficacy
- Developing interests and a sense of purpose
- Reflecting on one's personal role and contributions within a community

Resilience and

- adaptability
- Identify and managing one's emotions
- Identifying and using stress management and self care strategies
- Exhibiting selfdiscipline and selfmotivation
- Using planning and organizational skills setting personal and collective goals

Acknowledging others'

perspectives and strengths

SELF-MANAGEMENT SOCIAL AWARENESS

- Demonstrating empathy and compassion
- Identifying diverse cultural and social & historical norms, including unjust, biased, and racist ones
- Recognizing responsibilities and utilizing supports
- Contributing to a just and caring community

• Asking questions and defining a problem

- Examining evidence and analyzing assumptions and biases
- Analyzing information and making reasoned judgements
- Identifying solutions for personal and social problems
- Anticipating and evaluating the consequences of one's actions

EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATOR

- Listening actively, communicating effectively, and self-advocating
- Demonstrating cultural humility and competence
- Showing leadership and practicing collaborative problem-solving
- Attending to harm or conflict through restorative practices and standing up for the rights of others
- Cultivating an environment for giving and receiving ideas and constructive feedback