We as parents say NO MORE Mandates. Check out the real science, ask questions to the 1000+ employees at LLNL on mandates, or the 1000+ Alameda county health care, emergency responders and county employees who say NO to these mandates as well. Japan said no to mandates, the UK and Sweden say it's not necessary or even beneficial in so many words.
Do your research, our kids are required to do their homework. You all should be doing the same as well
